rules there for election of Vice-presidents of the Boards

Perhaps it may be desirable to have separate sets of rules for the two cases here and in such a case it would be easy to provide in the rules for Conjunction by the Board of the election of Vice-presidents of Taluk boards

No. 2231—L. B. 123-15-3, dated Camp Mysore, 9th October 1916.

Add the following as Clause (3) to Rule 8 of the Rules issued under the Mysore Local Boards Regulation, II of 1902 :—

(3) When the Government shall have directed that the Vice-President of a District or Taluk Board shall be elected by the members of that Board, the election shall be subject to the following rules :—

(i) The President of the Board shall give notice to the members of such Board calling upon them to attend a meeting on a specified date which shall be not later than one month from the date of the above said notice, for electing the Vice-President.

(ii) Such election shall not be held unless the President and at least half the members for the time being of the Board are present at the meeting.

(iii) Any member who desires or is willing to be elected must be proposed by one and seconded by another member and the votes of the President and members present at the said meeting shall be taken by the President.

(iv) The election shall be decided by a majority of votes of the President and members present at the meeting and voting, the President having a second or casting vote in every case of an equality of votes.

(v) No vote given by any person for himself shall be counted.

(vi) The result of the election shall be declared by the President and communicated by him without delay to the Deputy Commissioner of the District who shall report it to Govt in due Course.

(vii) The President of the Board shall also forward under his signature to the Deputy Commissioner minutes of the proceedings of the meeting in which shall be recorded :—

(a) The names of the members present,

(b) The names of the proposer and seconder of each member proposed for election,

(c) and the names of the members voting respectively for each member so proposed.

(viii) The validity of any election may be contested by a petition signed by at least three members of the Board by which the election was held and not otherwise, provided that such petition shall reach the Deputy Commissioner within seven days from the date of the election, and shall allege specific grounds for setting aside the election on account of material irregularity in the conducting thereof, or for other sufficient cause.

(ix) Upon receipt of such petition, the Deputy Commissioner shall enquire personally or by some other officer deputed by him, into the validity of such objection or objections and may thereupon, report the matter to Government who may pass such orders as they may think fit.

By Order,

L. KRISHNA RAO,

Offg. Secretary to Government,

Revenue Department.
